To Whom It May Concern:

I'm writing this letter of recommendation on behalf of Joe Garner and Jeff Johnson of Garner Johnson Builders. I selected Joe and Jeff to build my custom home in Cross Hill, SC. We first designed the custom lodge while sitting around a campfire discussing the layout, how I wanted as little maintenance as possible, and how I wanted the lodge to blend in with the terrain. I did hire an architect to draw the final design, but we made changes throughout the job which GJB made without too much disruption to the project schedule or budget.

If I had to stress one GJB's best traits, it would be their service. Throughout the job, they kept me informed of the progress and any issues with their daily reports, and since we finished the job they still make any changes or additions with just a phone call. I strongly recommend using Garner Johnson Builders.

Very truly yours,
